Executive Order

201 21 21 52

25 August 1950

MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Director, ORE
Assistant Director, OSI
Assistant Director, OPC

FROM: Assistant Director, OCD

SUBJECT: Coordinated Requirements for Peripheral Reporting.

REFERENCE: (a) Memo from DCI to AD/OCD dated 23 August 1950 same subject.

1. This office has been directed by reference (a) to submit a coordinated statement of CIA intelligence requirements to the Department of State for use in the peripheral reporting field. It is therefore requested that your office submit to OCD, Attention: Liaison Division, at the earliest practical date, your intelligence requirements according to priority of subject and place.

2. For planning purposes, it may be assumed that State will have peripheral reporting stations at the following locations:

3. For your information, peripheral reporting is defined as the overt collection of information on the USSR, its satellites, and areas under its control by intelligence units organized and operated exclusively for this purpose and established on the periphery of the Soviet orbit.

4. It is further requested that your office notify OCD of the approximate date that this material may be expected.
